Dear Families,

I would like to introduce myself, my name is Chris Oxenham.

I work as the Pastoral Care Worker (PCW) at Happy Valley Primary School.

I am here to listen, support, encourage, resource and facilitate a safe, inclusive, caring, fun learning environment.

This may be on a one on one basis or in a group for those children who have parental consent, or just someone to hang out with in the school yard at lunch or recess when I am here.

I am available to provide information and link families to support networks and services in the wider community.

I have adult children and understand how wonderful and complex family life can be. I hope that I may be a friendly face in our school community that you can call on and trust and have a cuppa with.

Please introduce yourself to me. I may be contacted through the office.

Kind regards,
Chris Oxenham
